1974. Suppl.

Published as a non-profit Hubbard family, and descendants, research project for the use and benefit of the many lines bearing this, and related names. Please consider this publication as a warehouse of information. You may take parts for your own family charts or research and consider what you don't use as general information that I hope will be of interest to all.

HOW TO USE THIS PUBLICATION.

Each issue will be on punched paper to be inserted in a standard three ring binder. This will enable you to insert your own information behind pages pertinent to your Hubbard line. For indexing purposes suggest you number your own pages a, b, c, d; i.e., 31a, 31b, 31c. This will assist you in indexing your insert pages. Pages will be numbered in sequence from issue to issue. Each paragraph will be numbered for cross-references and indexing.

Queries and Family History published free.

Subscription rates $10.00 for 4 issues. Published January, April, July, October (Index Issue) you get all issues for a publishing year regardless of when you subscribe. Advise at once if you miss an issue.

For years I have marveled about the "back sight" of Genealogists. I gather only the past is important and that no future exists whatever. I suspect a few of us dimly realize the year 2000 is not far off but haven't given it much thought. Perhaps we are like most of our ancestors who did not bother to leave us any family data whatever.

In doing some mental gymnastics I have concluded that if each of our ancestors had taken five minutes of their life time to jot down vital statistics about their father, mother and children and would have entered this information in some safe place for posterity, how simple the Genealogist's task would be.

Just think: 5 minutes out of their lives! Ten generations back would amount to 50 minutes or less than one hour. Fantastic!

Years and years of work, sweat and tears would have been saved by less than one hour's time on the part of ten generations of our ancestors.

How many of you are preparing a history of your family for our future generations? I can at least say I am.

The next thing to think about is just how secure and lasting is your family trace.

Have you thought about fires, floods or other disasters? Then one should consider thoughtless individuals who may destroy your priceless work upon your demise. Even the old family bible may become subject to the housecleaning process.

In my case I have preserved my family line, as far as it goes, through copyright with the Library of Congress and contributions to certain genealogical archives.

But is that enough?

I strongly suspect a central national file, perhaps in the United States Archives, might be of untold value to we who are interested in Genealogy. A national file service all could use to store a copy of their family trace.

The LDS church has a genealogical library service in Salt Lake City that does just this kind of thing. I feel far too many of us are not aware of this or think their service is limited to members of the LDS church.

The National Archives are set up for the maintenance of files and documents important to the citizens of the United States. I am certain it would take a legislative act to have genealogical records included and maintained in the archives and of course all kinds of regulations and red-tape to be written in order to confuse the users and defeat the real purpose of such a file.

Seriously, I am forced to agree with some of the red tape requirements. It would be necessary to use some uniform genealogical form for births, marriages, places of residence, deaths and remarks. Also essential to the continuity of such a file would be an update system to record new family members, changes of address and other details essential to a complete family history as time marches on.

Sounds complicated but I wonder? Our government constantly records things about us from the county, state and national level. How about an extra copy of birth records, marriages, deaths and perhaps other records for the national archives.

Social security alone has enough information on each of us to make a complete family trace for centuries to come. The Internal (Infernal) Revenue Service, the Census Bureau and of course each of us could be required by law at some point in our lives, to provide a genealogical record of our being.

Complicated: In this day of computers, information retrieval systems, and the ability to go to the moon and planets, a genealogical file on every family in the US sounds very simple. Write your representative and ask him to propose a bill for a national genealogical file.

I would like to hear from each of you regarding your opinion of HFGNL. What would you like to see changed? What improvements should be made? Do you wish it to continue? Should we publish more often? Should we publish one large issue a year? Are we neglecting some area of research you would like to see expanded? Have we overlooked some important genealogical sources?

I feel HFGNL is as much your publication as mine. After all you pay for it--and so do I. The fact that I do the compiling of HFGNL does not preclude my being wrong in policy matters no matter how good my intentions may be.

My background as a federal investigator causes me to write each word as though it is a fact. I try to refrain from evaluating the information in HFGNL in so far as possible for my training is oriented in such a way, that I leave evaluations to the reader or user as the case may be. Sometimes I may take the liberty of pointing out a discrepancy or a variation from a previously published item about the same person or fact.

So drop me a line. Don't be afraid of hurting my feelings. I simply want to improve our product.

Distinguished Hubbards

JOHN HUBBARD (descended from George Hubbard of Guilford, Ct), s of John and Mary (Ball) Hubbard, of Townsend, Mass, was b in Townsend 8 Aug 1759, a posthumous child. He graduated from Dartmouth College in 1785 and studied theology, but a vocal weakness forced him to abandon a contemplated ministerial career, and he therefore became a teacher, becoming the first Preceptor ofNew Ipswich. (N.H.) Academy in 1789-95. In 1798-1802 he was the Probate Judge for Cheshire Co, N.H. and in 1805 a Professor of Mathematics and Philosophy at Dartmouth. He published an "Essay on Music" and "Hubbard's Anthems' containing, as the volume relates, "Thirty Anthems selected from the works of Handel, Purcell, Croft and other eminent European authors" (which were sung in New England Churches for many years), "Rudiments of Geography" and the "American Reader." Aug 10, 1791, he m Rebecca Preston, dau of Dr. John and Rebecca (Farrar) Preston, of New Ipswich, N.H. and d in Hanover. N.H., lived in Mexico and Hindustan, India and had George, Harriet, Clarissa, Clara Ann and Emma.

HENRY GRISWOLD HUBBARD (descended from George Hubbard of Middletown, Ct) 2nd s of Elijah and Lydia (Mather) Hubbard, was b in Middletown, Ct 8 Oct 1814 and attended successively Capt Partridge's Military Academy at Norwich, Vt the Ellington High School and Wesleyan Univ. at Middletown. It was as plain as the midday sun that his capacity was abnormally a business one and that he was destined to command men and mark out great fields of enterprise. His training field was in N.Y. City in the woolen goods house of Jabez Hubbard, in Middletown later, in 1833, at the age of 19, as partner of Jesse G. Baldwin, dry goods merchant, and at the age of 21 as Manager of the Russell Manufacturing Co. Subsequently (1844) he became a Director in the Middletown National Bank and President of the Middletown Savings Bank. In 1866 he was elected State Senator from the 18th Connecticut Senatorial District, but he much preferred business activity to the honors of political preferment, and thereafter devoted himself principally to affairs requiring the genius of skillful and shrewd business managers. He of course became wealthy because of the possession of these faculties and left a large estate. Of a decisive nature, he trusted nearly always to his own peculiar powers of discrimination in his charitable donations, giving alike to Catholic, Jew, or Gentile institutions as the emergency appealed to his own particular view. He knew nearly all his employees by name, and was easily approached by them. He was a gentleman of magnificent personal appearance. June 19, 1844 he m Charlotte Rosella McDonough, dau of*Commodore Thomas and Lucy Ann (Shaler) McDonough. Henry Hubbard d 29 July 1891, and was bur in Indian Hill Cem at Middletown. Ch: Margaret Sill (b 30 March 1745, has traveled extensively, lives in Middletown,) and Charlotte Elizabeth (b 3 June 1848, d 14 Mar 1850).

*Commodore Thomas McDonough was well known in naval circles and elsewhere as the hero of Lake Champlain. He was b in New Castle Co., Del in 17?3 and died of ill health 10 Nov 1825, while returning from a sea voyage, his body being brought home on the ship in a cask of brandy to preserve it, where it was bur alongside of his w in Riverside Cem at Middletown. At 19 he was in the Navy and with Commodore Decatur in the Mediterranean, and at one time commanded the old heroic "Constitution". His principal brillant naval exploit, however, was in disastrously defeating 11 Sept 1813, upon Lake Champlain the British ships Confiance, Linnet, Chubb, Finch, and 12 gallies, commanded by Commodore Downie with 95 guns and 1050 men, with his inferior fleet of 85 guns, 820 men, and ships Saratoga, Eagle, Ticondergoa, Preble and 10 gallies. This was a remarkable victory. Commodore Downie surrendered and Sir George Provost who was supporting the British fleet at Plattsburgh rapidly retreated, while Commodore McDonough received thanks, medals and resolutions of gratitude from Congress and the nation ar large. The brownstone shaft in the cem bears record of his distinguished services to his country, and is situated close to the entrance, near the site where George Hubbard is supposed to have been buried.

BELA HUBBARD (descended from George Hubbard of Guilford Ct) fourth son of Daniel and Diana (Ward) Hubbard, was b 27 Aug 1739, in Guilford, Ct. He graduated at Yale College in 1758 *which in 1804 conferred upon him the degree of D.D) and afterward studied theology at King's (now Columbia) College, under the instruction of its President, Rev. Dr. Johnson. In 1763 he crossed the ocean with his friend Rev. (afterward Bishop) Jarvis to obtain holy orders, there being no Bishop in this country. He was ordained Deacon by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Frederick Keppel, Bishop of Exeter, in King's Chapel, London, 5 Feb 1764, and Priest by Rt. Rev. Dr. Charles Lyttleton, Bishop of Carlisle, in St. James Church, Westminister, 19 Feb 1764. Returning from Eng. he officiated at Guilford and Killingworth, Ct until 1767 when "the Society for Propagating the Gospel in Foreign Parts" appointed him their missionary at New Haven. He remained loyal to the King of Great Britain during the Rev. struggle, and in consequence was able to protect the personal property of many of his parishioners during the occupancy of New Haven by the British Army. It is related of him that he guarded the personal valuables of his parishioners in his church by standing in its doors with his vestments on as the British soldiers passed by. They, recognizing him as of the Church of Eng. did not out of respect for the cloth, attempt to enter and loot the premises. He also, it is further said, saved from destruction a young girl who was being pursued by a ruffianly British soldier. After the Rev. he organized the Parish of Trinity Church in that city and remained its rector until his death. 6 Dec 1812, in the 48th year of his ministry and the 74th of his age. He m 1768, in May at Fairfield, Ct Grace Dunbar Hill, dau of Thaddeus and Elizabeth (Isaacs) Hill (b in Island of Antigua in 1747, d in 1820). The human body could outlast stone as it can rebuild itself, potentially forever.

The spaceship of the future will be built in the astroid belt of materials therefrom. Smelters and foundries will be built and astroid miners will furnish the ore.

Spaceships traveling beyond our solar system will have a built-in ecology that will furnish food, water and air. Here is the real need for suspended animnation.

I hope before we travel to other planets in our universe we will have matured. I would be horrified for other races in the universe to see us as we are now.

Of course UFO's are real. I have seen lots of birds and airplanes I couldn't identify.

ANCES. & DESC. OF REV. HENRY CLARK
-C.C. VAN DEVENTER 1902

SAMUEL HUBBARD. C9

THOMAS' HUBBARD, grandfather of Samuel, was a gentleman residing at Hornden-on-the-Hill, in Essex, England, "of good estate and great estimation," and "zealous and religious in the true service of God." Discovered by an informer to Bishop Bonner, he was seized, imprisoned and burned May 26, 1555. It is believed that the story of Thomas Highbed in Fox's Book of Martyrs, refers to him.

James" Hubbard, the father of the immigrant, was a plain yeoman of Mendelsham (80 miles northwest of London); he married Naomi Cocke, daughter of Thomas Cocke of New Ipswich; he was also a "suspect" but escaped persecution.* His Testament (printed in 1549) "which he hid in his bed straw lest it should be found and burned in Queen Mary's days," was brought to this country by Samuel Hubbard, and is now probably in the Library of Alfred University, at Alfred Centre, N. Y. (A 7TH DAY BAPTIST CENTER)

SAMUEL[1] HUBBARD (James," Thomas') was born in Mendelsham, Suffolk county, England, 1610; died 1689; married Jan. 4, 1636, by Mr. Ludlow, Tacy Cooper, born 1608; died 1697.

Rachel, b. Mar. 10, 1642; m. Nov. 3, 1658, Andrew Langworthy.

Samuel, b. Mar. 25, 1644; d. soon.

2 Bethiah, b. Dec. 19, 1646; d. April 17, 1707; m. Nov. 16, 1664, Joseph Clarke.

Samuel, b. in Newport, Nov. 30, 1649; d. Jan. 20, 1670.

Samuel Hubbard writes of himself: "Such was the pleasure of Jehovah towards me, I was born of good parents, my mother brought me up in the fear of the Lord in Mendelsham in catechising me & in hearing choise ministers." He came in October, 1633, to Salem, Mass.; went to Watertown in 1634, where he says he "joined to the Church by giving account of my faith." In October, 1635, with a party of about one hundred, he started to march through the wilderness to the Connecticut valley; winter coming on before they reached their destination they suffered much from exposure, and insufficient food. Mr. Hubbard remained at Windsor during the winter, where he married Tacy Cooper, who had come to Dorchester, June 9, 1634, and was one of the same party. In 1636, shortly after their marriage, they went to Wethersfield, Conn., but removed to Springfield, Mass., May 10, 1639, in search of peace; here a church was soon gathered, and he says: "I gave acct. of my faith" and that there were "five men in all . . . my wife soon added."

To escape persecution under the harsh laws of Massachusetts they again moved May 10, 1647, to Fairfield, Conn., where "God having enlightened both, but mostly my wife, into His holy ordinance of baptizing only of visible believers, & being very zealous for it, she was mostly struck at & answered two times publickly, where I was also said to be as bad as she, and sore threatened with imprisonment to Hartford jail, if not to renounce it or to remove; that Scripture came into our minds, if they persecute you in one place, flee to another, and so we did; 2 day October, 1648, we went for Rhode Island, & arrived there 12 day. I and my wife upon our manifestation of our faith were baptized by brothr John Clarke, 3 day Nov., 1648."

Aug. 7, 1651, he was sent to Boston to visit Rev. John Clarke and others imprisoned there. He was admitted freeman of Newport, 1655. Oct. 1, 1657, "Brother Obadiah Holmes and I went to the Dutch & Gravesend & to Jameca & to Flushing & to Hamsted & to Cowbay . . . came home 15 Nov." In 1664 he was chosen to serve as general solicitor in case of the inability of Mr. Turner. He writes: "My wife took up the keeping of the Lord's holy Seventh Day Sabbath the 10th day March, 1665. I took it up 1 day April, 1665; our daughter Ruth, 25 Oct., 1666; Rachel, Jany. 15 day, 1666; Bethiah, Feb. 1666; our son Joseph Clarke, 23 Feb., 1666." "I went to Boston public dispute with those baptized there 7 day April, 1668."

In July, 1668, in a letter to a cousin in London he writes:* "The Lord having given me in this wilderness, a good, dilligent, careful, painful and very loving wife: we thro' Mercy live comfortably, praised be God, as coheirs together, of one mind in the Lord, travelling thro' this wilderness to our heavenly Sion, knowing we are pilgrims as our fathers were; & good portion being content there with. A good house as with us judged, & 25 acres of ground fenced in, & four cows which give milk, one young heifer and three calves, & a very good mare; a trade, a carpenter & health to follow it, and my wife very diligent & painful; praised be God. This is my joy and crown, in humility I speak of it, for God's Glory, I trust all, both sons in law and daughters are in visible order in general: but in especial manner my son Clarke and my three daughters, with my wife and about 14 walk in the observation of God's holy sanctified 7 day Sabbath, with much comfort and liberty, for so we & all ever had and yet have in this Colony.

"We entered into a church covnt [Seventh Day Baptist] the 23d day of Dec. 1671, viz: Wm. Hiscox, Stephen Mumford, Samuel Hubbard, Roger Baster, sister Hubbard, sister Mumford, sister Rachel Langworthy, &c." Their church was not formed without a departure by their former associates from that spirit of toleration and "soul liberty" which Roger Williams claimed; for the members who united on Dec. 23, had been excommunicated Dec. 7, when the Rev. Mr. Holmes preached against their doctrine of Seventh-day observance, and even declared "they had left Christ, and gone after Moses."* There is extant a letter from Roger Williams to Samuel Hubbard, in which he argues against the position taken by the latter, and cites various texts against his views; but it is written in a very different spirit from that shown by the Newport church, and recognizes the conscientious motives which actuated Hubbard.† "Bro' Hiscox and I send by this Church to N. London and Westerly, 7 day Mar. 1675," and again March, 1677/8 and 1686.

Nov., 1676, he writes: "In the midst of these troubles of the war [King Philip's] Lieut. Joseph Torrey, Elder of Mr. Clarke's Church, having one daughter living at Squamicut and his wife being there, he said unto me 'Come, let us send a boat to Squamicut, my all is there, and part of yours.' We send a boat, and his wife, his daughter and son in law and all their children and my two daughters, and their children [one had eight, the other three, with an apprentice boy] all came . . . . My son Clarke came afterwards before winter, and my other daughter's husband in the spring, and they have all been at my house to this day." Feb. 26, 1676, he writes a nephew at Rye: "I bless my God, my condition is comfortable, & I am very well contented with knowing it is Human energy, to be of value, must be used in the creative process. For this reason we have the task of improving the race to the fullest extent for our own benefit.

The real key to our social problems is the development and improvement of the human species. Why don't we?

Man power should never be measured in terms of productivity. He really is not very good at this task.

Humans are our most precious asset. They make our society, change it, improve it or destroy it. Without humans no doubt the world would be better off.

Samuel Hubbard

more to give than to receive. . . . My wife and daughter Langworthy desired me to write about flax, yt if yu bring some 20 pound if at a pound of flax for a pound of wool, it's so at Stonington; if bring Indian Corn its now 4 pound of wool a bushel & I think it will be more."

Sept. 2, 1677, he writes: "Truly Children for the present I am not altogether beset wth thots (as its judged from Satan) I have been in very sore exercise, ever since br. Hiscox came to ys & a week before, occasiond by a sudden sentence of the Ch. declaring yt I have not the gift of prophesying publickly in the church tho' hereto fore judged so by those brethn of the Old Ch. Yet by most here & encouraged in it, was so sorely set on, that I was horribly tempted to deny all, yet kept; but sorely harried. I pray be silent in this matter for the presnt. . . ."

June 29, 1678, he writes: "Last winter the Lord visited me with a very sore cough as long as strength & breath did last, oft times 5 times together only a little respite: my dear wife oft took her farewell of me, my dear brethren watched with me in their terms. Major Cranston I sent for — he said he judged none help or hope for sure, but for present refreshment he gave me a small vial of spirits which I took, and had some sleep but my cough rather increased." He was visited by the church "which drew into the other room agreeing to seek Gods face for me poor one." ". . . The next day I would have gone to town to give public praise, but was advised not to go," etc.

In 1683 Mr. Hubbard went by water to visit friends at Rye, returning by Fairfield, Milford, New Haven, Guilford, Lyme, New London and Westerly, arriving home after six weeks' absence, Sept. 25. In a letter dated May 23, 1684, he says: "What marvelous rich grace . . . hath made known his holy sabbath to such poor worms: first to my wife, I next, the first settlers of . . . aters in N. E. (one brother and sister came over with. . . . ce of it.)"

Samuel Hubbard

Dec. 19, 1686, he writes: "My wife and I counted up this year 1686: My wife a creature 78 years, a convert 62 years married 50 years and independent & joined to a church 52 years, a baptist 38 years, a Sabbath Keeper 21 years. I a creature 76 years, a convert 60 years and independent & joined to a church 52 years, a baptist 38 years, a sabbath keeper 21 years. We are by rich grace born up & adorned with rich mercies above many, as to have all my three daughters in the same faith and order, and 2 of my granddaughters and their husbands also with us. O praise the Lord for his goodness endures for ever! Not to us, not to us poor creatures. These may be my last lines unto you, farewell."

BETHIAH[2] HUBBARD (Samuel[1]) was born Dec. 19, 1646, in Springfield, Mass.; died April 17, 1707; married Nov. 16, 1664, in Newport, R. I., by James Barker, assistant, Joseph Clarke, born Feb. 11, 1642, in Newport, R. I.; died Jan. 11, 1727, in Westerly, R. I. (See page 19).

Baptized Sept. 29, 1661. "Bro' Hiscox laid hands on our daughter Bethiah Clarke 15th day Sept. 1675;" received in the church 10th day January, 1676.

If government was restricted to the business of government, what a wonderful thing that would be.

The one way to control ever-growing governments is to restrict the amount of taxes they can collect.

About 96% of government services and goods would be cheaper if obtained from private enterprise.

Government should always be the servant of man. Man should never be a servant to government.

Humanity must plan and organize a planetary government built on a bill of human rights that will provide equality and justice for each of us.

"FROM WHENCE WE CAME" By B15

HUBBARD

Thomas Hubbard (Higbed) was of Essex, England and he died at the stake on May 26, 1555, during the religious wars in England (See Book of Martyrs, by Fox). He died rather than give up his protestant beliefs.

He had;

James Hubbard who married Naomi Cook who was of Mendalsheim, England.

They had;

Samuel Hubbard who was born in England in 1601 and came over in 1633. He married Tacy Cooper on January 4, 1636 at Windsor, Conn. They lived at Watertown, Massachusetts, Windsor, Connecticut and Westerly, Rhode Island where he died in 1689. In 1635 he belonged to the Church at Plymouth and then moved to Windsor, Connecticut where he was married by Rev. Ludlow. In 1639 he organized a Church at Springfield, Massachusetts. On May 10, 1647 they were at Fairfield, Connecticut and were told to stop their religious meetings or go to jail. From October 2 to October 12, 1647, they journeyed to Rhode Island. On November 3 the same year he was baptized in Rhode Island by Reverend John Clarke. On August 7 he was sent with Rev. Clarke to visit the Rhode Island men being held in jail. (See 1651 arrest of Robert Burdick*) In 1655 he is listed as a Freeman at Westerly, Rhode Island. He made a trip to Jamaica L.I. and was gone for 45 days. In 1664 he served as Solicitor General in place of Lawrence Turner. In 1668 on April 7 he debated religious problems in Boston, Massachusetts. His taxes in 1680 were 8 shillings 2 pence. He and his wife joined the 7th Day Baptist Church in 1665. SEE COOPER

They had;

Ruth Hubbard who was born January 11, 1640 and married Robert Burdick on November 2, 1655. They made their home at Westerly except during the Indian Wars and Robert died there in 1692 while she died in 1691. SEE BURDICK

We are supposed to have about + 3 lbs. of brains per person. One hundred persons = about 330 lbs. Think of the quantity of brains of 3-4 billion of us. What if we used all that brain power!

We must think in terms of what is good for the individual, then multiply by the world's population. What a change that would make!

The basic rights of the individual must be the basic rights of all humanity and should govern our government.

In order to become civilized, the human race must outlaw war and all of its machinery and manpower, and learn to settle disputes by debate and legal processes.

GAY NINETIES RENDEZVOUS: THE MAMMOTH CAVE RAILROAD by Elmer G. Sulzer

One day in 1907, Elbert Hubbard got off the L. & N. train at Glasgow Junction, now Park City, and boarded the combine behind the locomotive "Hercules" bound for Mammoth Cave. Bob Hatcher was the conductor. Coming through the coach, he would stop in front of each passenger and say, "Two dollars, please."

At his turn, Hubbard paid his fare and said nothing. Noting that he was an impressive-looking stranger, the conductor lingered a moment. He was openly puzzled at Hubbard's silence. "All right," Hatcher finally demanded. "Go ahead and say it." "Say what?" asked Hubbard. "Complain at paying two dollars to ride nine miles and back." "I never kick on a railroad shorter than ten miles," Hubbard replied.

So much is recorded of the great man's remarks on the day of his introduction to the Mammoth Cave Railroad. We shall see, however, that he had not spoken his final word on the subject.

Mr. Hubbard further wrote that the conductor told him, "You notice that we have our cowcatcher on the rear end, so as to keep the cows out of the ladies' coach. Why, a bull got after us last week and would have ketched us, too, if we hadn't been on the down grade"!

As we have already seen, Mr. Hubbard's information on the rolling stock of the railroad was completely inaccurate. Furthermore, as said by Kincaid Herr in his The Louisville & Nashville Railroad, 1850-1942, the Hubbard article "is, on the whole, unfair to a carrier which, for forty-five years, faithfully served its public, generally made money for its owners, and never had a wreck, a passenger killed in a train accident, or a lawsuit brought against it."

Dandridge Poor (b Mar 1810) m-1 Emily L. Hubbard, had 8 ch. Mrs. Thurman V. Keister, 640 North 1st Ave., Phoenix, Ariz knew something abt this fam--at least she did in 1952!

An excerpt from the Register of the Ky Historical Society, Vol. 56, No. 2, Apr 1958: Elbert Hubbard wrote of this latter element: "I was visiting an old farmer friend in Illinois, and very naturally the talk was of the great fair. Was he going? Not he--he dared not leave his house a single day; did I not know that the Catholics had been ordered by the Pope to burn barns and houses of all heretics? It sounded like a job but I saw the grey eyes of the old man flash and I knew he was terribly in earnest. With trembling hands he showed me the Pope's encyclical in a newspaper which had a deep border of awful black....I was taken to the two clergymen in the village, a Presbyterian and a Methodist; both were full of fear and hate towards the Catholics....they were sure that the order to kill and burn had gone forth. And so in many towns and villages as I journeyed; I found this quaking fear. In many places men were arming themselves with Winchester rifles; the APA lodges were rapidly initiating new members and lurid literature which was being vomited forth from presses in Louisville, Chicago, Omaha and Kansas City was being sent broadcasts.

Private John Milton Hubbard is mentioned in the Register of the Ky Historical Society, Vol. 54 No. 187, April 1956 as being a thoughtful and observant soldier.

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Mrs. H. L. Noblitt, 307 Cambell Ave., Tullahoma, Tenn 37388 sent us the following research notes on her line of Hubbards.

COMPILERS NOTE: I strongly suspect her Hubbard line or descendants of, are related to a James Hubbard who migrated to N.C. from Milford Delaware in 1750. See story by Mrs. Ruth Taggert, Nashville, Ind. This issue. I am very interested in the James Hubbard line as I suspect my line of Hubbards are desc from him. Five Hubbards from N.C. migrated to Kentucky during the early 1800's. I settled in Clay Co and in Knox Co., Ky. Anyone having knowledge of these Hubbards, please write HFGNL.

Nathaniel Hubbard deeds to John Word 427 acres, Coney Fork, Mar. 26, 1808 $600. Wilson Co., Tenn.

Nathaniel and Sarah (Hix) Hubbard and William Hix were closely associated, since the two brothers in-law bought adjoining land from Newton Cannon on the same day Dec. 24, 1811 (Bedford Co. Tenn. Deeds Bk L, pp. 532-534). (From the Frost and Related Families , Tenn). Nathaniel Hubbard was called "Old Nattie Hubbard" by a well known desc, apparently he had d before Feb 3, 1832, for on that date his heirs: William Hazlett, Robert McElvany, John Hubbard and John F. Norman agree for Sarah Hubbard, the widow to keep a negro girl. Also, for life. Deed also says our mother and mother-in-law.

Mrs. Ruth Hubbard Taggert, Nashville, Indiana provided the following history of James Hubbard, relations and desc. to Mrs. Mary K. Hubbard, 25 Robin Hill, Chelmsford, Mass 01824. Can anyone furnish additional info abt this line of Hubbards? Have any of you any info about a possible migration to Clay and Knox Co. Ky from N.C? If so please write me, LSH.

ORANGE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA: In 1750 when James Hubbard sailed from Milford Delaware to Currituck Inlet, N.C. He was accompanied by his sons, Wm. and Richard and his first cousin John Goelet. Lands were being given out and a petition was put in for 640 acres in Beaufort, in the name of Richard, and he was left in N.C. while the other 3 returned to put in the crops in Delaware. In the autumn they again sailed south, with the addition of James' son Samuel to the former three. On this trip John Goelet took up New Hanover, and spent the winter there. The land in N.C. was better than their sandy farms in Delaware, and in the next autumn quite a party of the Hubbards went down. Two of James' brothers from N.J., John the uncle of John Hubbard goes to Aurora, and Benjamin and his sons, William and Samuel. Their fishing boat which they used in Delaware Bay was seaworthy and they were all good sailors as well as farmers. The two older Hubbards, John and Benjamin with their nephew William stayed south and John Goelet returned in order to help with the boat and to visit his family. The Goelets, Smiths and Hubbards of Delaware were not quite familiar with the idea of going to N.C. through that part of the state where they subsequently settled, namely, Orange Co. which was hardly more than a name. Its county town, Hillsborough, was not surveyed until 1754, and was laid out on the north bank of the Eno River when there was an unbroken forest on every side. John Hubbard had settled near the seashore in the Pasquetank District on his trip in 1751, and had opened a general store in which his bro James put money.

James had got in the way of sailing south when the farm work was over in Delaware taking with him some of his younger sons, where during their visit they were useful in the store or helped their bro Richmond on the farm which was stocked from the store in Delaware.

John Hubbard was a member of the Malitia of this district and when his bro James came to N.C. in the autumn of 1754, and there was an alarm on an Indian incursion from Va, this being the year before Boddack's defeat and the Indians were already becoming very threatening on the backs of all the colonies, James joined the same company with his bro, Capt. Miles Gale's Company. During this winter he was the back country for the first time, he was greatly impressed with the Piedmont Lands, and then determined to make it his home, which he did later, bringing with him his sons and son-in-law, Ralph Smith.

Orange Co. then comprised the whole of what is now Parson, Caswell, Durham, Chatham, Allemance, Surrey, Guilford, Rockingham, Randolph and Wake Counties. Hillsborough, the county town was surveyed and laid out in 1754. James turned over the farm in Delaware to his s, John, who had just m his cousin, Elizabeth Smith, and influenced by his young wife's desire to remain near her people was unwilling to emigrate. James' son William had stayed in N.C. and had prepared a homestead in the northern part of Orange Co.

James Hubbard put his family into a 4 horse wagon packed such household and farm implements into two other carts, driven by his servants and himself on horseback accompanied by his cousins, Jonathan and Richard Goelet he set out overland for Orange Co., N.C. They drove to Dover then by way of Chester and Frederick Maryland to a ferry opposite Annapolis, where they crossed the bay, from Annapolis they drove to Belhaven, now called Alexandria in Va. from Alexandria to Fredericksburg, thence to Halifax, N.C. which was already a much traveled road. A second road had been opened from Fredericksburg by way of Orange, Va to a gap over the upper Stauton River down to the valley of Salisbury and Hillsborough, N.C., which ten years later was to carry the tide of emigration from Pennsylvania and Va. into N.C. James Hubbard chose the elder road because it was safer and because his bro John had removed to Halifax, N.C. which was then one of the fastest growing centers of population and they thought destined to be a great metroplis, because it is on the high road to Philadelphia. James Hubbard settled down on his rich and well wooded plantation in Orange Co. to what he hoped was to be a peaceful life. The Indians had ceased to be a menace to that part of the country after the campaign of General Forbes against Fort du _____ and the peace of 1763.

The population was increasing so fast that Orange County was felt to be too large a unit and in 1771 James Hubbard and his neighbors petitioned Governor Martin to form a new county, be a line beginning where Granville Co. line corners on the Virginia line, thence east along the Virginia line to the beginning. Guilford Co. had been organized the year before when four counties had been carved out of Orange, namely, Guilford, Chatham, Surry, and Wake. The population had risen to 13,000 whites and 700 negroes.

James Hubbard was now satisfied that N.C. offered a better future than Delaware, so he urged his s John to sell out the farm there and bring his family south. This he finally did in 1776, bringing his w and two dau, Margaret and Esther with the aid of his cousins Abram Goelet, to his father's farm. Here Abram Goelet saw his cousin Rebecca, John's youngest sister, who had grown up since leaving Delaware, fell in love with her and took her back with him on his return.

But peace was not to be a portion of the remote farms of N.C. The Revolution had already started and both the old man of 71 and the younger man of 33 served his turn, and their immediate neighbor was destined to be the scene of one of the great battles of the war, that of Guilford Courthouse, so called though there was not as yet any courthouse. Lord Cornwallis was to be encamped at Hillsborough. The farm houses all about were to be filled with the wounded of both sides and many of these were their old friends from Delaware, whose troops had been sent down under Dekalb and stationed at Hillsborough before they took part in the battle of Camden. James Hubbard enlisted on July 20, 1776, for nine months service in Cap. Reading Blounts Company of the 10th regiment of N.C. Volunteers. After his service was over in April 1779, the two men were able to get in the crops for the season, and to harvest them with great difficulty, however, as old James Hubbard was over 70, there was no farm labor to be secured and the household consisted of old Mrs. James Hubbard, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Hubbard and her two small dau of nine and eleven. Despite the dependence of all these people on him, when the American soldiers under Green marched by his very yard a few days later, Cornwallis was in Hillsborough issuing a proclamation that he had conquered N.C., John took his musket and left home. John Hubbard always asserted that both armies marched over his land. On the 15th of March they met and fought, John Hubbard was with the militia men in the open cornfield. Ignominy had been heaped because they broke and ran before the onset on the British Regulars. In any case if they fired their muskets and ran from an exposed position they lived to fight another day. Many of them were like John Hubbard, unenrolled farmers without leadership of ammunition. He carried a British bullet in his shoulder from that day to his grave, and as soon as he had the use of his arm again, he enlisted on the 5th of April, three weeks after the battle of Guilford Courthouse, in Capt. Anthony Sharpe's company of the 10th regiment of N.C. Volunteers, for 12 months service, before his time was out the Revolution was won.

With the return of peace there were family changes. Old Mrs. James Hubbard died. Mrs. John Hubbard was anxious to visit her own people back in Delaware. The Smiths, John's older brother William, had received a grant of 340 acres in 1780 on Hoggan Creek, in Guilford Co. where he lived with his family, and it was arranged that old James Hubbard should move to Williams for a visit, and William should look after both farms, as labor was easy to get after the disbanding of the armies, while John took his wife and two daughters to see their relatives in Delaware. It was during this visit that their youngest and last child was born and named James after his grandfather who died in Indiana.

Notes from the old Hubbard Bible, which belonged to James I.

James Hubbard was the youngest of 11 children: he was born in the year 1613 in Langham England. Rutland County. He was the only s of Henry and Margaret Hubbard (or Hubbart) the name was written both ways.

He came to America in 1637, settled first in Charleston, Mass., then moved to Long Island in 1643 where he was granted land in Gravesend, (now part of Brooklyn) in 1645. The charter bears date of Dec. 19, 1645. In the Brooklyn Record office there is the old charter with a fine signature of James Hubbart. His various moves are noted in the family Bible, so it is not difficult to trace him.

James Hubbard m first Martha (No last name given), second Elizabeth Baylis (also Bailies). Ch: James Hubbard, b 10 Dec 1665; Rebecca, b 28 Apr 1667; Elizabeth b 3 June 1669; John b 20 Mar 1670; Elias, b 11 Apr 1673; Hannah (no date given for birth but statement only that she m Mynderat Johnson).

Before 1665 he moved to Mammoth Co., N.J. Samuel the youngest was b 3 May 1676. John (2) m Rachel Goelet of Milford, Kent Co., Delaware, her bro were John, Joseph and Isaac: her uncles were George and Abram. John and Rachel had a large family, 7 sons and 1 dau: Benjamin, Obediah, Henry, William, James, Joseph, John and Rachel. The 4th s (James) b in 1707, m in 1732, May 13, to Elizabeth Maddox of Burlington, N.J. They moved to Kent Co. Delaware, where his maternal gf, John Goelet (or Gullet) still lived. They took up land in Mispillon Hundreds, not far from the Gullet's, they had James, William and John (4) b 1748 in Kent Co., Delaware. In 1750 they removed to Orange Co. which later was divided and called Guilford Co. On a visit to Kent Co. he met and married his cousin Elizabeth Smith, and their 1st ch James was b there. He, his w and ch then went to N.C. and several of the Smiths and Gullets went back with them. John's land in N.C. was on the Great Road connecting Greensboro and Hillsboro. The deeds are on record in both towns. He also had land in Halifax Co. where his bro William settled. The Gullets settled in Lincoln and Ruthurford Co. N.C. and some of them went west with John Hubbard when he went to Indiana.

John and Elizabeth Hubbard had two daughters, Esther, who m her cousin Ralph Smith, and Margaret who m Joseph Glenn on 4 Sept 1779 in Greensboro, N.C. She was b 25 May 1769 and d in Aurora, Ind. 29 May 1869, and in bur in Mt. Tabor burying ground. She was within 4 days of being 100 yrs old.

Revolutionary Service:

The Army records show that John Hubbard enlisted as a private in Capt. Sharpes Company of the 10th Regiment of N.C. Volunteers on the 5th of April 1781 for 12 months service, time being out on the 8th day of Sept. 1782.

Letters

From Mrs. Katherine Reynolds, 3417 Montrose, Apt. 407, Houston, Texas 77006. I enjoyed the last issue of the HFGNL and found that I had some information on the Hubbards of Smith Co, Tennesse and which I thought connected with those in Ga. I am enclosing a copy of these records which you may use or not as you wish. Too, I have a friend who descends from the Hubbards of Rutherford Co. Tennessee. Seems that the Thomas of Rutherford connected with the family in Ala. so am enclosing what I have on that family. I ordered some microfilms of Stewart Co., Tenn records and found the will of William Hubbard who d 1813 in Stewart Co, Tenn leaving w Sarah. You published the Bible Records of this family. I have a photocopy of the bible records. In looking through my Hubbard book the other night I found that written above the records was (William Hubbard, son of William and Mary". I have studied the records of Guilford and Rockingham Counties, N.C. trying to find a William old enough to be the f of this William, b 1776 but so far have failed. I am sending you a few items that relate I think to this couple for you to add to your collection of Hubbard data.

County Court Trials Docket: No. 93 Nov 1779 Martha Caruthers vs Sarah de Graffenreidt. No. 181 Nov 1782, Hubbard'd Adm. John Whitworth (case referred to William Farrer(?) and Nathaniel Williams and if they don't agree to choose an umpire, other award to be made. No. 60 - Nov. 1783, Hubbard Amd. William Whitworth-cont. No. 61 William Strode vs Hubbard Adm Cont. (lover looked the date). No. 73 - Nov 1784 Joel Thomas vs John Chadwell-cont. No. 77 -John Whitworth vs Mary Hubbard. No. 110-Mary Hubbard adm. vs. Wm. Stubblefield (Garnishee). No. 17 Nov 1785-Adams Am. va John and Mary Hubbard. No. 80-Nov. 1784 John Graves vs Mary Hubbard adm- too late to "hand" No. 18 - Nov. 1784 - John Graves vs Mary Hubbard adm. No. 2 Nov 1789 -Hubbard adm. vs Wm. Stubblefield-cont. No. 15 Feb. 1786-Adams adms. vs John and Mary Hubbard general issue. I can't figure out who the John and Mary were but the first item for them was Nov. 1785, so that John was probably the one that was in Guilford Co N.C. in 1790 and later.

Caswell Co N.C., William Hubbard of Guilford Co to Benjamin Hubbard Sr of Orange Co for 50 pounds land of S side of county line Creek. Wm. Hubbard's line, it being part of a larger tract that Benjamin Hubbard, Sr. purchased of William Hubbart - signed by Polly Hubbart and William Hubbard.

April 20, 1779 - William Hubbard and Mary, his wife, to William Leigh for 500 pounds, 250 a East side of Hogan's Creek in Caswell Co. Wit: Abraham Womack, John O'Dell, and Wyatt Stubblefield. Note: This Wm. Hubbard had w Mary and the wit. to the deed were O'dell, Stubblefield, compare with items from Guilford.

Guilford Co, N.C. - June 28, 1779 - Grant entered but not surveyed until March 17, 1784 and the grant actually dated 16 May 1787, N.C. to William Hubbard 640 a in Guilford Co. head of London Mill Creek, Stone Fork and Little Town Creek.

From Rockingham Co - Jan 31, 1795 - John Hunter, late sheriff of Rockingham Co deeds to Coleston Porter, assignee of John O'Dell 438 a. out of two land grants last mentioned, the said land having been seized by the said sheriff pursuant to an execution issuing from the court of Guilford (order's date not given) against William Stubblefield and the Administration of William Hubbard, deceased, for the sum of 79 pounds and two shillings with interest from 1 June 1779 until paid (for debt) besides the further sum of 5 pounds 19 shillings and six pence for fees in the said suit expended which sum was recovered by John Williams, guardian, etc., as on record may appear (record cannot be located) said land was offered for sale at public sale to highest bidder on 14 May 1790, the highest bidder aforesaid John O'dell, who assigned it to Coleston Porter.

From all this it appears that the William Hubbard whose w was Mary was tied in with the Huguenot family. He bought land on county line from Nathaniel Reynolds in 1770. He sold some land to a Benjamin Hubbard in 1776.

One Benjamin m Mary Williams (wid of Paul). One John Williams was guardian of ch of Wm. Hubbard. Toc , Jacob Williams followed the Hubbard family to Georgia.

Marriages of Guilford Co. N.C.

Martha Hubbard to Jesse Sanders, 19 Aug 1819.
Asa Hubbard to Perry Cannon 22 April 1823.
Solomon Hubbard to Rebecca Hartgrove, 5 Aug 1812.
Solomon Hubbard to Jane Matthews, 16 June 1824
Edward Hubbard to Eva Clapp 16 May 1826
Sarah Hubbard to James Morgan 10 July 1800
Emily A. Hubbard to Dr.John S. Dare 12 Nov 1845
Daniel Hubbard to Sally Orr, 22 Feb 1825
Richard J. Hubbard to Sally Swain, 2 Nov 1826

Iris Sanford Nanney, Dogwood Lane, Fulton, Ky 42041 sent us the following letter. My knowledge of the Hubbard's is very limited at this time as I have just begun on the line. John L. Hubbard b 30 Nov 1835 (Tenn) d 9 Sept 1906 Obion Co., Tenn, w Lee Ann (census 1880 Obion Co) b ca 1845. Ch: Mary Frances b 20 Oct 1866, d 5 June 1906 m Robert A. Sanford, 14 Nov 1883; Ella, b ca 1869, m _____Smith; Matthew, b ca 1873; Thomas Litt, b ca 1877; Charles b after 1880 Census. Matthew and Thomas moved to Okla in the vicinity of Grandfield. Nothing more is known on them. Charles moved "out west" and his mor Lee Ann went to live with him after d of John L. in 1906. Mary Frances Hubbard was my grandmother, but as she d when my f was only 7 yrs old, we don't know much abt the fam. P.S. Have record of m of J.L. Hubbard to Z. L. Dickson 29 June 1865 but unable to find if Z. L. Dickson and LeeAnn are same person.

A query might be the easiest and fastest way for you to find a connecting link in your ancestry. A link that you could look years for and someone may have, not knowing that it's important to you. Your "Kuzzins" can't help if they don't know what you're looking for.

CHANGE SHEET:

Re:
It was printed that Martha m to Ann Margaret. Martha m. Lester Lay and Carel Clay m Ann Margaret.

Re: Page 232, para 598 - Jeduthan Hubbard. (1085) should be Harriet A. not Abigail.
(1086) should be Elias J. not David and (1087) Martha m. Abraham Cline White, not Stephen White.
Jonathan Hubbard in para 599 was a twin of Jeduthan. There is no record of a son (1090) Edward.
Our thanks to Bernice White Robinson for bringing this to our attention.

Putting together a newsletter of this size is a difficult task and we so appreciate those of you with the sharp eye to catch discrepancies. Take a couple of minutes of your time to drop us a line and we will publish these corrections in our next issue. This is our only way of bringing you concise information. Your few minutes of help could possibly aid a fellow researcher complete years of work.

DEAR KUZ:

At least once each publishing year (Jan. to Oct.) I feel we KUZZINS should look at the financial status of our association. Let me assure you its sad. Otherwise we are simply fantastic. Fantastic in the amount of information we have been able to collect. At this moment I can safely say we have doubled Edward Warren Day's "1,000 years of Hubbards". I assure you Day was no slouch when it came to collecting information about Hubbards. I have no hope of living long enough to publish all the information we have, are getting, and will receive in the future.

Further we have only touched the list of research materials available (see list of references published Issues 10-11 and 12). This reference is only a drop in the bucket compared with the material you and others have so generously contributed.

Our association membership has grown. More so this year than ever before. Of course we have lost a few also. But growth exceeds loss. However, production costs are going up each issue which means either raise the price of our product or reduce our operating costs. I do not wish to raise our price if I can avoid it. Thus money for research must be limited. One way to look at this problem is to publish what we have and forget what we do not have. Of course a lot of the material we do not have in our reference lists fills gaps in many of your family traces or would complete a trace. In the past I have selected research material that would appear to contain information a lot of our members are looking for.

Should any of you obtain any of the reference material we have listed, please share it with us as that is the purpose of HFGNL.

I have spent some time thinking of what results we are getting for our money and effort and comparing these costs with other modes of genealogical research. Some of you have spent $30.00 for three years of HFGNL. Many may have had no results in finding a lost ancestor and are left with a mass of information about the Hubbards that have little meaning at least at present.

The cost of finding an ancestor varies from the cost of a postage stamp to several hundred dollars worth of research which may or may not bring results. From your letters I know many of you have been lucky but some have not. Some have been unable to identify their ancestors with names appearing in HFGNL. I am one of these but I keep hoping.

I am exalted to believe in the impossible, to have faith in it happening and to remain ignorant of the knowledge that it can't.

I am inclined to make predictions now and then because its fun and may shake a few people up. First let's do away with any notion that I work from divine inspiration, occult powers, star readings, black magic, pink magic or consorting with the devil. My predictions are based upon known facts and guesswork. Nothing else except maybe stupidity.

Some day very soon we will find a way to read the genetic memory passed on to us by each of our ancestors. Then and only then will we get to know our ancestors while we still live. Of course we will meet them in the spiritual world, that is, if they even want to talk to us. A matter of some conjecture.

Our healing arts are a miracle to behold. In the eyes of our descendants these miracles will be viewed about as we view the practice of leeching or blood letting so popular a few hundred years ago.

Human parts banks may or may not become a practice in the future. Perhaps the same results can be had by growing new parts in their entirety.

About drugs and the so-called drug culture. It's okay with me if their use is abolished so long as scotch whiskey is left alone.

Exchange Advertisement

Attention Editor or Advertisement Manager

HFGNL will exchange advertisements with other Genealogical associations, societies or family publications on an ad for ad, copy for copy basis. This will be most advantageous to us all as most of our families are inter-related by marriage or other relationships some place along the line. Many of our readers have an interest in the area you publish in. As none of us can afford National advertising, this is our only way of getting this kind of coverage. The HFGNL reaches every state, most of the larger cities and many of the Genealogical Publications. We want to exchange with all of you. Please prepare the ad you wish published along with a copy of your publication. HFGNL is published Jan, April, July and October. All exchanges must be on a yearly basis.

Send your publications and exchange ads to: Leslie S. Hubbard, 568 Sunbeam Rd. Lompoc, California 93436.
